

Max Miller (OH-7)

Biography

BIRTH DATE

Unknown

EDUCATION

BA, Cleveland State Univ., 2013

FAMILY

Unknown

Background

The descendant of a wealthy and politically powerful Cleveland real estate family, Miller is a veteran of both Trump campaigns and the White House; Miller ran to represent Ohio's 7th Congressional District with Trump's support

Grandson of Sam Miller, a real estate mogul who wielded considerable political influence in the Cleveland area; grew up in the affluent Cleveland suburb Shaker Heights

Briefly attended the University of Arizona in 2007 and completed his undergraduate education at Cleveland State University; joined the Marine Corps reserve in 2013

Took his first campaign position in 2015 as a member of Marco Rubio's presidential campaign advance team

Introduced to the Trump campaign in 2016 through Eli Miller, who was the campaign's chief operating officer of finance, and helped prepare for campaign events as a member of the advance team

After Trump's election, Miller began working in the White House, and gradually accrued more responsibility as a leader of the president's advance operations; also helped manage appointments to agencies including the Department of Defense

Left the White House in 2020 for a top position in the Trump campaign

District Profile

COOK PVI

R+7

2022 VOTE RATING DISTRICT LOCATION

Solid R

Southern Cleveland suburbs

Election Results

2022 GENERAL

Miller

55%

Diemer

45%

SOURCE Associated Press; Vignette, by National Journal

AP DATA AS OF December 7, 2022 10:42 AM