Representative Beth Van Duyne

Party: Republican
District: TX-24

Relevant Committees: House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee; Small Business Committee
Relevant Caucuses: TBD

Member Bio: Van Duyne replaces Rep. Kenny Marchant (R) who did not seek reelection. Former mayor of Irving, Van Duyne describes herself as a Christian and conservative. She opposes the ACA and aims to reduce federal regulations and next generation nuclear reactors to address climate change.

Election Vote: 48.8%

District Info: located in the northern portion of the state and includes portions of Tarrant, Denton and Dallas counties

State Info: TX produces $566 million in annual fresh produce and tree nut on more than 6,000 farms. Other major agricultural commodities include cattle, poultry and cotton.

To read more about Representative Beth Van Duyne (TX-24), click here.
To see TX’s Fresh Fruit and Vegetable State Profile, click here.
To register to attend meet and greet with Representative Beth Van Duyne (TX-24), click here.