Representative Tracey Mann

Party: Republican
District: KS-1

Relevant Committees: House Agriculture Committee
Relevant Caucuses: TBD

Member Bio: Grew up on farm. Mann takes incumbent Roger Marshall's (R) seat after he decided to run for Senate. A conservative businessman and Kansas’ 50th lieutenant governor, Mann described himself as “pro-life, pro-ag, pro-gun and pro-Trump” during his campaign. He’s also vocal in his support of law enforcement.

Election Vote: 71.4%

District Info: Located in the north and western parts of the state, the first district is the largest in the state encompassing some 63 counties.

State Info: KS produces $27 million in fresh produce and tree nuts annually on nearly 1100 farms. Other major agricultural commodities include cattle, grains and hogs.

To read more about Representative Tracey Mann (KS-1), click here.

To see KS’s Fresh Fruit and Vegetable State Profile, click here.

To register to attend meet and greet with Representative Tracey Mann (KS-1), click here.